He grabbed my arm and practically dragged me out of my, wait not my room, Where am I. I noticed he had a knife when he saw me looking at it he smiled and started scraping it across my skin. I gulped he seemed satisfied. "Where am I," I asked shakily. He just smiled and pushed me into a ditch. Instead of shoveling dirt like I thought he would, I noticed that the ground around me was moving I looked down and it was a large number of bugs. I started to scream he just laughed, "that's the least of your worries." He left and I had a feeling he would be back soon. I tried crawling out of the ditch but the ground gave in and I fell into the pile of swarming bugs crawling on top of me. I had screamed for help but no one came.
